

HOMEWORK SHEET

Due: Monday 26th February

Purple Mash

Weather Diary

This term we will be learning all about the weather. What it is, why it changes and how it affects us.

Write a short weekly report about the weather using pictures and maps. It can be as accurate or as made up as you like .

I will show some of the best ones in class!

Reading

Complete one reading challenge of your choice. This can be a book from home or school.

Any reading challenges not completed by Monday will be done at play-time and/or lunchtime as they are an important part of your homework.

I will be collecting reading records on Friday.
