

Year 1 Newsletter Feb - March 2013

This half term we will be working on a new topic called Pirate Paradise. We have lots of exciting activities to carry out throughout this topic so get on board and join the crew.

We have a new friend in Year 1 she is called Polly the Parrot. She will be coming to stay with you at some point during the half term but you must promise to look after her. You will have to write in her diary the night you have her and then return her back to school for the next person to take the following day.
